Contract Management and Negotiation

Course code: FB302 From: 20-04-2026 Venue: Bangkok (Thailand) - Course Fees: 5250 £

Introduction

In the finance sector, contract management is a cornerstone of risk control, resource allocation, and inter-departmental efficiency. As a Department Manager within the Coordination Management Division, your role is central to ensuring that financial contracts, service-level agreements, and cross-functional commitments are aligned with organizational goals and executed with precision.

Whether managing external vendor contracts, inter-agency agreements, or internal service coordination, a well-structured approach to contract management is essential to ensure fiscal responsibility, regulatory compliance, and operational efficiency. At the same time, negotiation is not just a skill—it's a strategic tool. Your ability to lead negotiations impacts financial outcomes, service quality, and institutional trust.

This course is designed to sharpen your expertise in both contract management and negotiation, with a special focus on the challenges and dynamics faced by professionals operating within finance-related coordination functions. Through real-world scenarios, strategic tools, and practical exercises, you will enhance your capacity to manage complex contractual relationships, negotiate effectively, and contribute to the financial stability and operational cohesion of your organization.

Course Objectives of Contract Management and Negotiation

Upon completing this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the full lifecycle of contracts specific to finance and coordination contexts.
- Interpret and assess contract clauses from a financial risk and compliance perspective.
- Develop negotiation strategies that support fiscal prudence and service optimization.
- Lead contract-related communications and decision-making across departments.
- Monitor contract performance with an emphasis on financial accountability.
- Manage amendments, renewals, and dispute resolutions proactively.
