Building Leadership Pipelines: Succession and Competency Gaps

Course code: ML311 From: 28-06-2026 Venue: Online - Course Fees: 1400 £

Introduction

In today's dynamic and competitive business environment, organizations are under constant pressure to sustain growth, navigate change, and ensure continuity in leadership. Leadership succession is no longer a reactive or short-term process—it is a proactive and strategic effort that requires deliberate planning, deep insights into organizational needs, and a robust understanding of competency gaps.

This training program, "Building Leadership Pipelines: Succession and Competency Gaps," is designed to equip HR professionals, talent managers, and organizational leaders with the knowledge and tools to build resilient leadership pipelines. Through a structured methodology, participants will explore how to assess current and future leadership needs, evaluate individual and team competencies, identify and bridge skill gaps, and prepare high-potential employees for future leadership roles.

Participants will also learn how to create sustainable succession frameworks, design development plans aligned with business strategy, and foster a culture of continuous leadership growth. This course balances strategic thinking with hands-on tools and real-world applications, offering a comprehensive pathway to building future-ready leadership.
