Leadership Development through Learning & Training

Course code: HR300 From: 25-10-2026 Venue: Qatar - Course Fees: 3550 £

Introduction

Leadership is not a static trait—it is a dynamic and evolving skill that requires continuous learning, self-reflection, and adaptation. In today's fast-changing business environment, organizations need leaders who can navigate complexity, inspire teams, and drive innovation. Leadership development is not merely about positional authority; it is about cultivating a mindset of continuous growth, learning agility, and the ability to empower others.

This five-day intensive training program is designed to enhance leadership capabilities by integrating learning and training strategies. It will explore how effective leaders use learning as a tool for personal and professional growth, drive team performance, and create a culture of knowledge-sharing and development. Participants will gain insights into leadership theories, practical strategies for mentoring and coaching, and techniques for fostering a learning-driven organization.

Through interactive discussions, case studies, role-playing exercises, and real-world applications, attendees will develop the skills and mindset needed to become lifelong learners and transformational leaders. By the end of the program, they will be equipped with the necessary tools to build and sustain a leadership framework that prioritizes growth, adaptability, and team development.
