Intergovernmental Communication and Conflict Resolution

Course code: AG327 From: 24-08-2026 Venue: Kuala Lumpur - Course Fees: 5000 £

Introduction

In complex governance systems, effective communication and collaboration between different levels and branches of government are essential to ensure coherent policymaking and public service delivery. However, misalignment, overlapping mandates, and political differences often lead to tension or conflict. This course provides tools and frameworks for enhancing intergovernmental dialogue, promoting collaborative problem-solving, and resolving conflicts constructively within the public sector.

Course Objectives of Intergovernmental Communication and Conflict Resolution

Upon completing this program, participants will be able to:

- Understand the dynamics of intergovernmental relations and communication.
- Identify sources of conflict and misalignment in multi-level governance.
- Apply structured communication and negotiation techniques.
- Manage interagency and intergovernmental disputes effectively.
- Foster a culture of collaboration and shared accountability.

Course Methodology of Intergovernmental Communication and Conflict Resolution

- Lectures and Expert Insights: Leading industry experts will share their insights and best practices.
- Case Studies: Analyze real-world talent acquisition challenges and solutions.
